

Diploma Criteria Summary

As you document your Design, you need to include -

- 1 A Clear Beginning ;: Design Title, Your Name, Start Date and End Date of Design, Start date of Diploma.
- 2 Design Brief : Write an introduction to the design summarising what you are doing and why, the aim of the design and goals
- 4 Identify the Client : Who is it for and what are their needs?
- 5 Share the Design Framework / Process you are using. Name the stages of the Design Framework as you go through them in the design.
- 6 Permaculture Ethics : Refer to all three of them.
- 7 Permaculture Principles : Use at least 3 in the design.
- 8 Design Tools : Utilise at least 3 at anywhere in the design.

Within the Design Framework or anywhere in the design make sure you show that you -

- 9 Survey : Share documentation showing how you recorded your observations, did research and mapped the design site.
- 10 Analyze: Share design options and possibilities. Show that the solutions you came up with to address challenges and needs are relevant and appropriate.
- 11 Share important Design Decisions and how or why they were made.
- 12 Include evidence of an Action Plan showing how the design will be Implemented.
- 13 Explain how the design will be Maintained.
- 14 Include Evaluation of the Design. Did you fulfil your aims? What worked? What didn't?
- 15 Reflect on the Process / Framework / Tools / Principles / Strategies you used. Share highlights of your Lessons Learned and how have you progressed as a designer.
- 16 Show Documentation of the design being implemented.
- 17 Remember acknowledgements

